8. [redacted] advised that we should pick up from David Martin, in the office of Senator Thomas J. Dodd, a book by Suzanne Labin which [redacted] had made available to Martin.

I met with Martin who indicated that [redacted] had not given him such a book but he was expecting to see her shortly and it was very likely that it would be passed on to him at that time. He is aware of our interest in this and will let us know when the book comes into his possession.

9. [redacted] Handcarried to Mrs. Beckler, Secretary to Senator Humphrey, a personal letter from the Director to the Senator. Mrs. Beckler said she would give the letter to the Senator upon his arrival shortly after noon today.

50X1 10. [] Made arrangements through the 50X1 Senate Foreign Relations Committee for a Miss Adams, in the office of Senator Kuchel, to receive a copy of the [] report on Vietnam. Miss Adams had been referred to us by Robert Manning of State Department. (This is in accordance with arrangements previously made with Mr. Robert E. Lee, Acting Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations.)

50X1 11. [] Spoke with Mr. Joseph McIntyre, 50X1 in the office of Senator Edward Kennedy, regarding a constituent request for a copy of the [] report on Vietnam. I advised Mr.
McIntyre that this document still carried an official use only limitation notwithstanding the fact there had been references to it in a number of newspaper articles. However, I added that arrangements had been made with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for the Senator's office to receive a copy of this report for their use.

50X1 12. [] Talked with Miss Natalie Martin, in the office of Senator George Smathers, who said she had made arrangements for me to see Senator Smathers at 11:45 tomorrow to discuss newspaper articles on missiles in Cuba. (OCI has prepared a briefing paper on this.)

50X1 14. [] reviewed in part the 50X1 draft report of the Senate Committee on Armed Services relating to H. R. 8427. The draft was not in a condition normally anticipated for a first draft. The revised committee print and report were sent to the printers during the evening for page proofs which will be available for correction during the day tomorrow.
